

University of Djilali Bounaama Khemis Miliana

Dep : Human & Social Sciences Stream : Counselling & Guidance

Level : Master1

Prof : D. Mezaini

LESSON THREE : PILOT STUDIES

SECTION : TEST YOURSELF

Section A – Multiple-choice questions

Choose the response that is correct or best answers the question.

1. Which is not a reason to conduct a pilot study?

- (a) To save time and money.
- (b) To road test the procedure.
- (c) To make modifications if necessary.
- (d) To deal with order effects.

2. Which describes a double-blind procedure?

- (a) When participants do not know the aim of the study.
- (b) When participants do know the aim of the study.
- (c) When neither the participants nor the investigator know the aim of the study.
- (d) When both the participants and the investigator know the aim of the study.

3. In a drug trial, the group that received a placebo would be the:

- (a) Experimental condition.
- (b) Blind condition.
- (c) Control condition.
- (d) Mint condition.

4. Which would not be tested in a pilot study?

- (a) The hypothesis.
- (b) The procedures.
- (c) The standardised instructions.
- (d) The materials to be used.

Questions	1	2	3	4
Answers				